

Master Seminar

The path into the world

Online:

3.9.2024 – 12.9.2024

In this Master Class, we present a coherent model of conception, gestation, and birth: We bring together these psychological theories with the concepts of Logosynthesis. We'll start with conception and the transition into time and space. Then we'll explore the time in the womb and birth.

Logosynthesis with the energy concept is supplemented with the various perspectives from Nandor Fodor, Maarten Lietaert Peerbolte, Stanislas Grof and others. This concept will be presented and experienced through theory, discussions, practice groups and demos. We introduce new protocols and a model for change and development of consciousness in relation to the start as a human being in the Matrix.
